Monday 1st June 13:00 – 14:00 (GMT)	Battleships and the Monday Meeting Let's try and play the classic board game of Battleships! It should be easy, strategic and fun! The objective of Battleships is to find and sink all the vessels on your opponent's board before they destroy yours. The catch is, neither of you know where the other has placed their battleships. It's a guessing game with a bit of strategy in the later rounds.
